
Student and program assessment

- Assessment is an ongoing, vital part of the physical education program
 - Formative and summative assessment of student progress
 - Student assessments align with state/national physical education standards and written physical education curriculum
 - Assessment of program elements that support quality physical education
 - Stakeholders periodically evaluate the total physical education program effectiveness
-